PRIVACY STATEMENT

Local Government Managers Australia (Tasmania) acknowledges and respects the privacy of individuals.

Some of the information that you provide on this form is 'personal information' as defined in the Privacy Act 1998 (Commonwealth) and the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 (Tasmania). This information is being collected for the purposes of maintaining our database so that we can renew your membership and communicate with you, particularly keeping you informed of forthcoming events and marketing the services of LGMA to you.

The information is also made available to the National Office who use it for distribution of the magazine and for communicating with members.

Each year, LGMA (Tasmania) includes in its annual report a list of names and addresses of LGMA members. A copy of the annual report is distributed to:

- Each LGMA member in Tasmania
- The National office of LGMA and other state divisions of LGMA
- LGMA (Tasmania) auditors
- Business Affairs Branch, Department of Justice and Industrial Relations
- Local Government Association of Tasmania
- Local Government Division
- Potential LGMA members

The annual report is also made available to LGMA (Tasmania) sponsors, so they can conduct research and market their services to you. The annual report may be made available to a member of the public who writes to LGMA requesting a copy for a bona fide purpose.

Following LGMA (Tasmania) conferences and seminars, we may prepare and distribute to each registered attendee and conference sponsors a list detailing the name of each person who attended the conference or seminar and the council or organization they represent.

You have a right to access, and alter, personal information about yourself kept in the LGMA (Tasmania) database. If you have any objection to any of your personal information being used in the manner described above, or if you have any other queries, please contact the Executive Officer, LGMA (Tasmania):
